Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 1 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 27 June 2001.
- 2a) ☐ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☒ This action is non-final.

DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

Invention I (Claims 1-114) A method and apparatus of providing a stake in proceeds of an exit of a first security and a second security by pooling the first security and the second security by the respective security holders.

Invention II (Claim 115) A method of obligating the realization of a security by a security holder, wherein the security is a share, selling said security and then transferring proceeds of said sale to a security pool.

Invention III (Claim 116) A method of obligating the realization of a security by a security holder, wherein said security holder undertakes to transfer a security to a pool management for realizing said security and distributing the proceeds.

Invention IV (Claim 117) A method of risk sharing for a security holder of a start-up company, said security holder having securities of said start-up company.

Inventions I-IV are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct if they do not overlap in scope and are not obvious variants, and if it is shown that at least one subcombination is separately usable. In the instant case, subcombination I has separate utility providing a stake in proceeds of an exit of a first security and a second security by pooling the first security and the second security by the respective security holders MPEP § 806.05(d).

subcombination II has separate utility such as obligating said security holder to undertake, when said security is a share, selling said security and then transferring proceeds of said sale to a security pool, and when said security is an option to acquire a share, exercising said option, selling the underlying share and transferring the proceeds thereof to said security pool See MPEP § 806.05(d).

subcombination III has separate utility such obligating said security holder to undertake to transfer said security to the pool management for realizing said security and distributing the proceeds therefrom in accordance with rules governing said security pool See MPEP § 806.05(d).

subcombination IV has separate utility such as undertaking a pooling transaction with respect to at least a portion of securities of a startup company, said pooling transaction relating to a security pool having securities from at least one other start-up company; and receiving from said pooling transaction a stake in proceeds of all securities in said securities pool. The examiner asserts that each of the described utilities is separate and distinct rendering the subcombinations distinct from each other.

2. The examiner has required restriction between subcombinations usable together. Where applicant elects a subcombination and claims thereto are subsequently found allowable, any claim(s) depending from or otherwise requiring all the limitations of the allowable subcombination will be examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. See MPEP § 821.04(a). Applicant is advised that if any claim presented in a continuation or divisional application is anticipated by, or includes all the limitations of, a claim that is allowable in the present application, such claim may be subject to provisional statutory and/or nonstatutory double patenting rejections over the claims of the instant application.

Art Unit: 3693

3. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art due to their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

4. No telephone interview was conducted due to complexity of the restriction requirement and since the examiner knows from past experience that an election will not be made by telephone. (see MPEP 812.01)

5. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

6. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement is traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Conclusion

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to JAGDISH PATEL whose telephone number is (571) 272-6748. The examiner can normally be reached on 800AM-630PM Mon-Tue and Thu.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, James Trammel can be reached on (571) 272-6712. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 517-273-8300.
